

Erin Fullmer
Gymnastics/AcroDance Instructor

Erin Fullmer has been part of the CCPA family since her daughter, Abby was 2. (She's graduating from High School this year.). An ever-present resident at the front desk, Miss Erin has moved into a teaching and coaching role at both the gym and at the studio. She loves helping kids learn new skills and enjoys the beauty of contemporary dance. When not busy, she can usually be found reading and always has a book with her. When she grows up, she wants to live and travel in an RV loaded with her own personal library. In addition to her daughter, Erin is a dog mom to Lily and Cooper.

Favorite Song: "What's Up" by 4 Non Blondes

Favorite Food: Wontons